It is said that “it is all in the details”. As a cosmetologist working in the fast-paced television and film industry, it is my focus on the details that have allowed my work to shine. I also attribute my success to my curiosity and adaptability to find solutions in dynamic environments. Learning new ways of doing things and looking for innovative solutions is what excites and drives me.

WORK EXPERIENCE

HAIR AND MAKE UP ROOM MANGER AND COSMETOLOGIST

Bloomberg Television, LP JUNE 2009 – JANUARY 2025
